Today's Opportunity - Gold Exploration Deficit

Value in strategic exploration

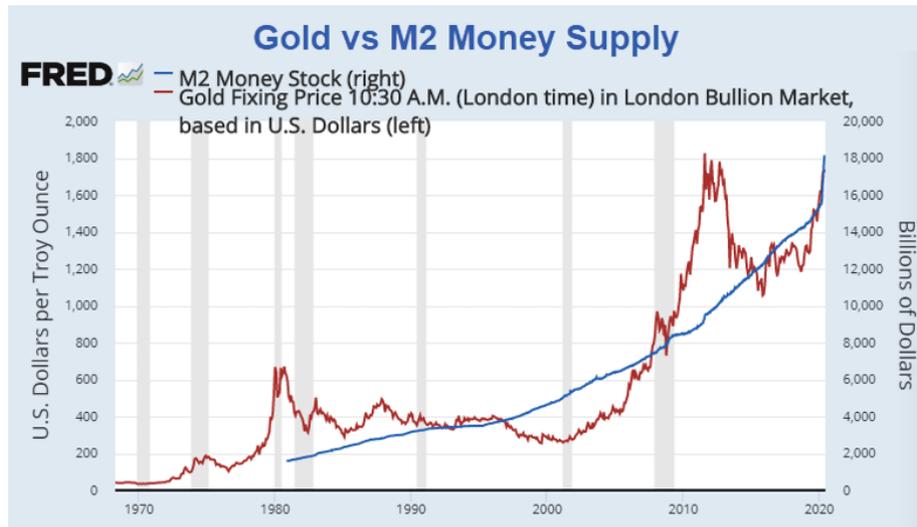

- Annual production from senior gold producers is markedly lower.
- Overall decreased exploration budgets.
- Lower grades and exploration targets more challenging.
- Sector emphasis on profits versus more production.

Gold price cycle opportunity

- A clear time in history to capture a golden opportunity.
- Gold – the ultimate store of value in volatile, unstable, debt laden markets.
- A clear correlation between the annual growth rate in M2 money supply and the price of gold.

Leahy Property

- Option on Leahy Property acquired by NPR in June 2020.
- The Leahy Property is located in north central Eby Township and in the southern part of adjacent Grenfell Township, approximately 15km south west of Kirkland Lake Ontario.
- The property holdings includes interests in twenty seven claims with a total area of approximately 500 hectares.

Capturing a Golden Opportunity

- An experienced team who have worked together for more than 20 years.
- Proven track record of delivering value for shareholders.
- Ability to identify, finance and develop assets.
- Has raised in total capex for all projects – CAD$3.5 billion.
- Maximising the cyclical market opportunities.
- Experience of applying new thinking to old historic assets.

Clearly Defined Asset Acquisition Strategy

- Historic past producing mines.
- Existing infrastructure.
- Low production cost.
- Near production potential.
- Mine life in excess of 8 years.
- Safe jurisdictions.
- Focus on Gold.

Strategy has been proven successful – Kirkland Lake Gold, Rupert Resources & El Mochito.

Management / Founders - Proven Success at Restarts

- Targeted upfront exploration investment.
- Strategic near term production.
- Low overall CAPEX deployed.
- Generating positive cash flow quickly.

NPR Management / Founders - Applying New Thinking to Old Assets

- Applying new thinking to old assets:
 - Re-evaluating geological data, combining historic information and applying modern techniques.
- Identifying new technologies that deliver value:
 - Team introduced battery mining vehicles to the Kirkland Lake, Macassa mine in 2012 resulting in:
 - decreased CAPEX due to decreased ventilation requirements; and
 - lower operational costs.
